ModeraCare is not a health care provider, but it has partnered with MeMD, a leading telemedicine provider, to offer you virtual access (via telephone or online video chat) to MeMD's network of independently contracted, board-certified, licensed health care providers. These health care providers - MDs, DOs, NPs and PAs - are licensed in the state where you are located and will be able to treat many routine medical conditions over the telephone or through online video chat. This secure telemedicine platform makes healthcare accessible on your terms - Anytime. Anywhere.
